ON CENTER STAGE

directed by

Sarah Rogers

"89-90"

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts . . ." †
I hope that everything you have experienced here has prepared you for the times in your future when you will be "on center stage."

† William Shakespeare, As You Like It, Act II, vii, 141-143.

WOMEN'S DORM

The women's dorm is the place where secrets are told, dreams are revealed, and hopes are made known. It is a place where friendships are shared . . . lasting memories are made . . . and tensions are released while running and screaming through the halls.

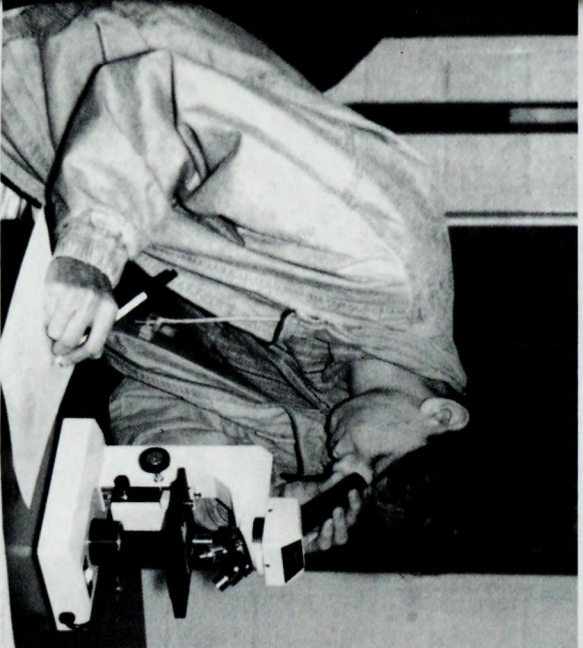

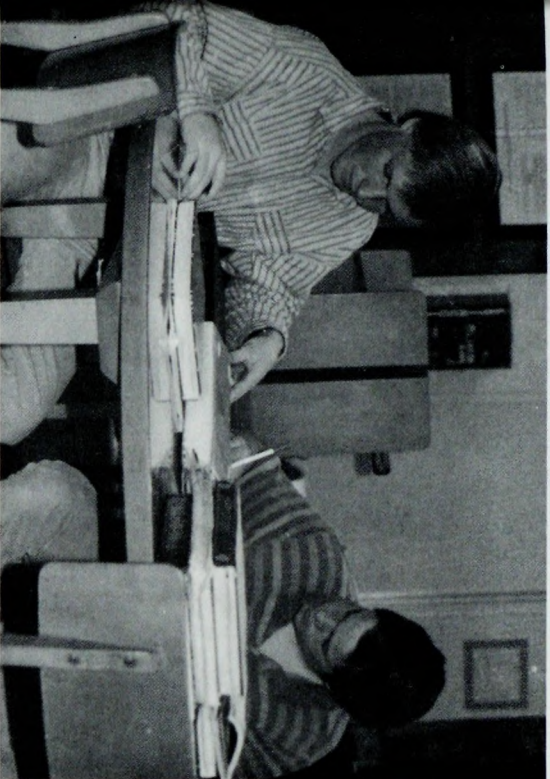

RA's: Dee Coleman, 1st floor; Carloee Giles, 2nd floor; Charity Netteburg, Head RA; Esther Dye, 3rd floor

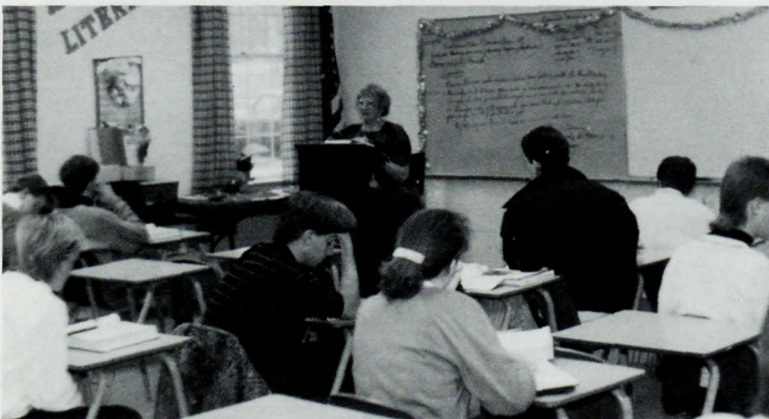

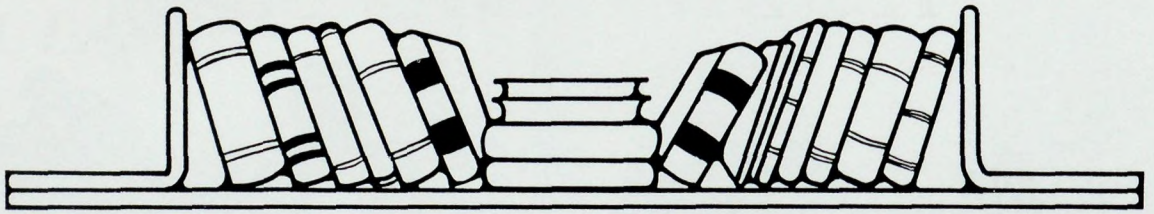

CLASSES

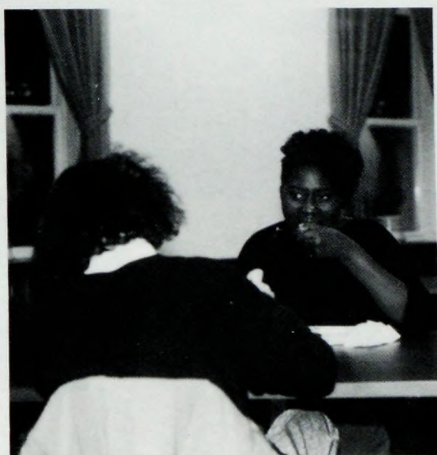

The bulk of the actors' and actresses' day consists of a superior learning experience, often referred to as classes. They begin every morning at 7:00 and sometimes do not end until 6:30. Because these players are given so many great opportunities to practice and rehearse, they should be well prepared for their future productions.

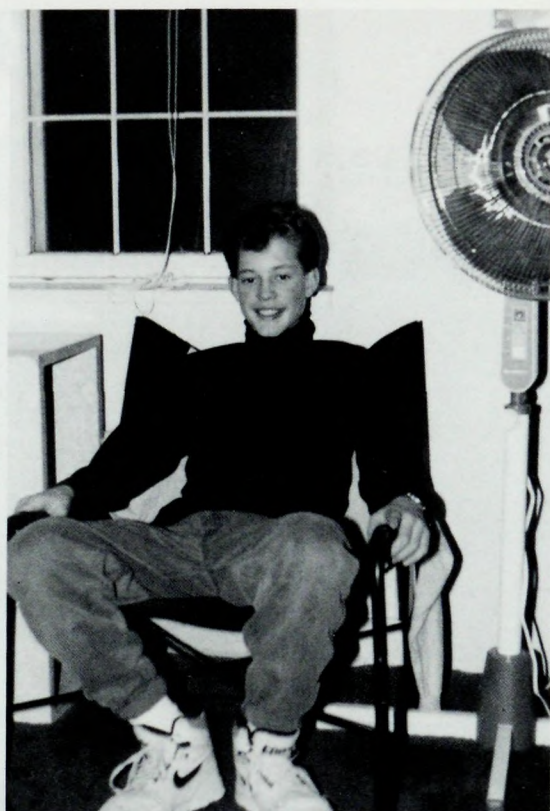

HOBBS' DINER

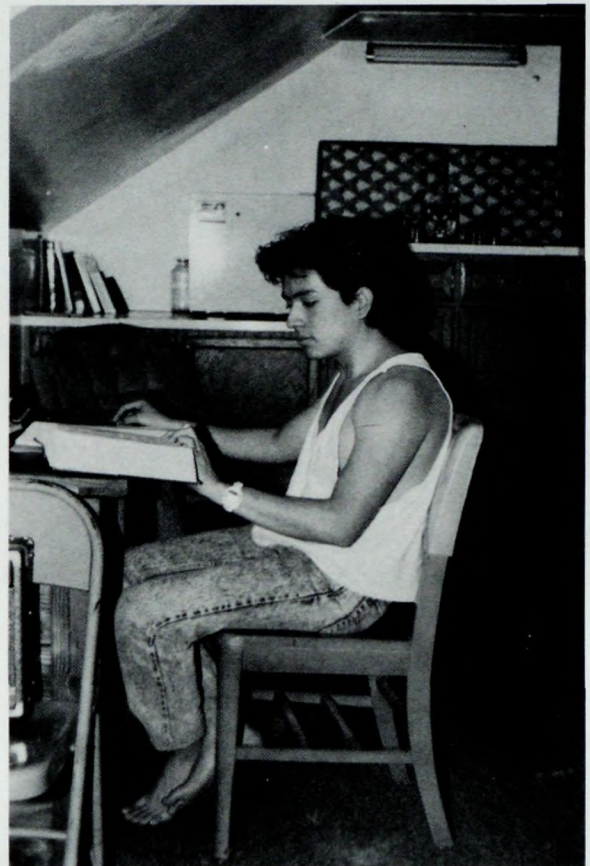

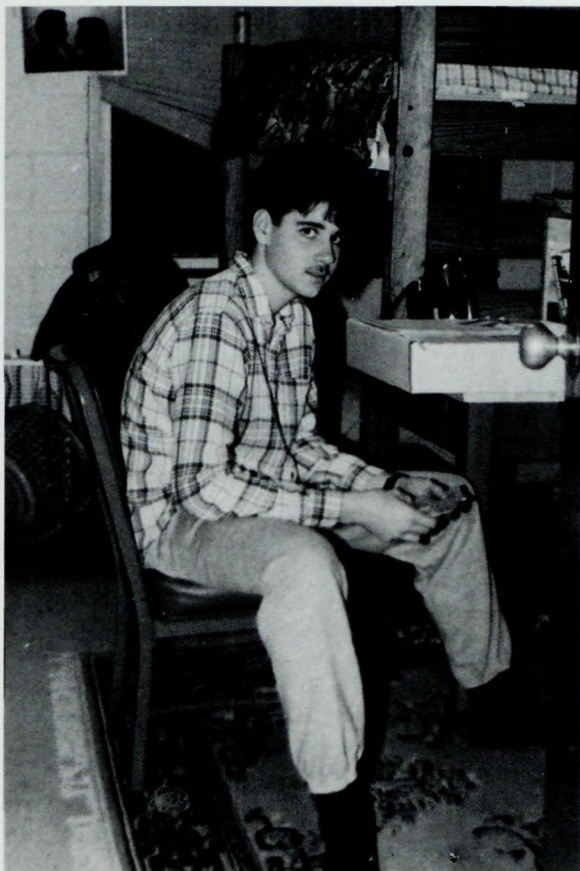

MEN'S DORM

The men's dorm is not all fun and games. Mixed in with shaving cream battles and towel fights are hours of studying for quizzes and tests, and completing assignments. With the hours spent together, the guys are able to form lasting friendships.

Dan Dye—1st Floor RA; Dan Cork—Study Hall RA; Jason Coe—2nd Floor RA; Brian Owen—3rd Floor RA

CIRCLE

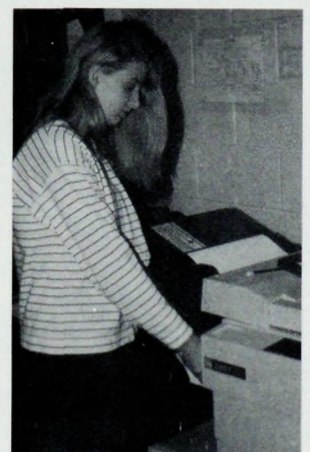

The "Circle," as it is affectionately known, is considered a celebrity haunt. After or between their many responsibilities, the players like to gather here for a few moments of pleasant conversation. It is a favorite place on warm afternoons.

CAMPUS WORK

There is never a dull moment in the life of stage and screen performer. His day is split in half between classes and work. Some pursue careers as secretaries. Some are employed in the dorm. Some toil as janitors and gym workers. Whatever his talents, Mr. Jackson will find a job to match.

OFF-CAMPUS WORK

Some of the adventurous seek jobs that are perhaps a little more difficult to attain than those on campus. Some possibilities are . . .

COMMUNITY STUDENTS

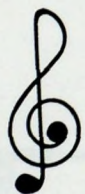

There are those in our midst who seem to have a little more freedom, more perks if you will. They are free to watch television, raid the refrigerator, and go out to eat. They even have all night lights!

BOYS' CLUB

"No Girls Allowed" is the password. The Boys' Club participates in a variety of activities: playing in the gym, watching movies, eating refreshments, going to the mall, caving, backpacking . . . The guys accept the separation from the girls like real troopers.

PRINCIPAL

DR. HARRY MAYDEN

Our production set would be in a state of disorganization without our Production Coordinator. He enjoys being on the set, close to the cast and crew. This year he is working as a sponsor to our youngest group of actors, the Freshmen. He is usually found whistling or humming a tune, as he loves to sing. He enjoys being a grandfather, attending basketball games, telling stories . . .

FALL PICNIC

The stage was set for a day of fun and games. It was a long, hard day with fierce competition between the classes. When the dust settled and the mud pit stopped churning, the senior class had emerged victorious.

REGISTRATION

It was a well known fact that when the great production of 1990 began, actors and actresses would be needed. Hence, registration date, August 27, was designated. HVA signed on 183 players, including regular cast members and new talent.

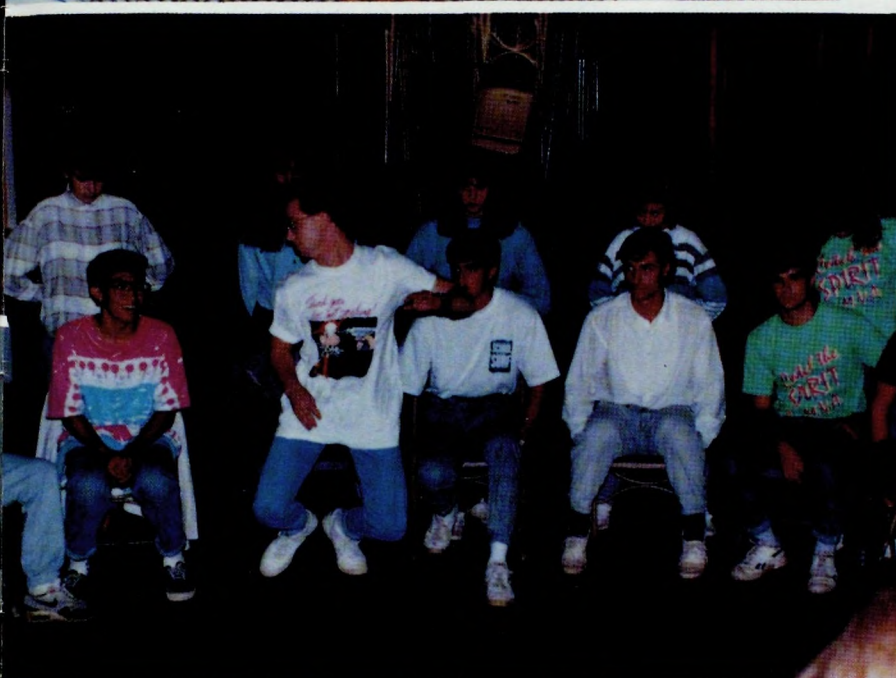

LEADERSHIP WEEKEND

During hurricane Hugo the production staff and directors from HVA attended key meetings at Camp Blue Ridge. While immersed in brainstorming sessions our bold leaders set out on a quest, determined to return "Distinctively Different."

HIGHLAND VIEW VALLEY RUN

The scene was to be a battle from start to finish; a test of skill, strength and endurance. Many had determination, but in the end David Green gave his all and came out number one.

GLENGARRIES' CAMPOUT

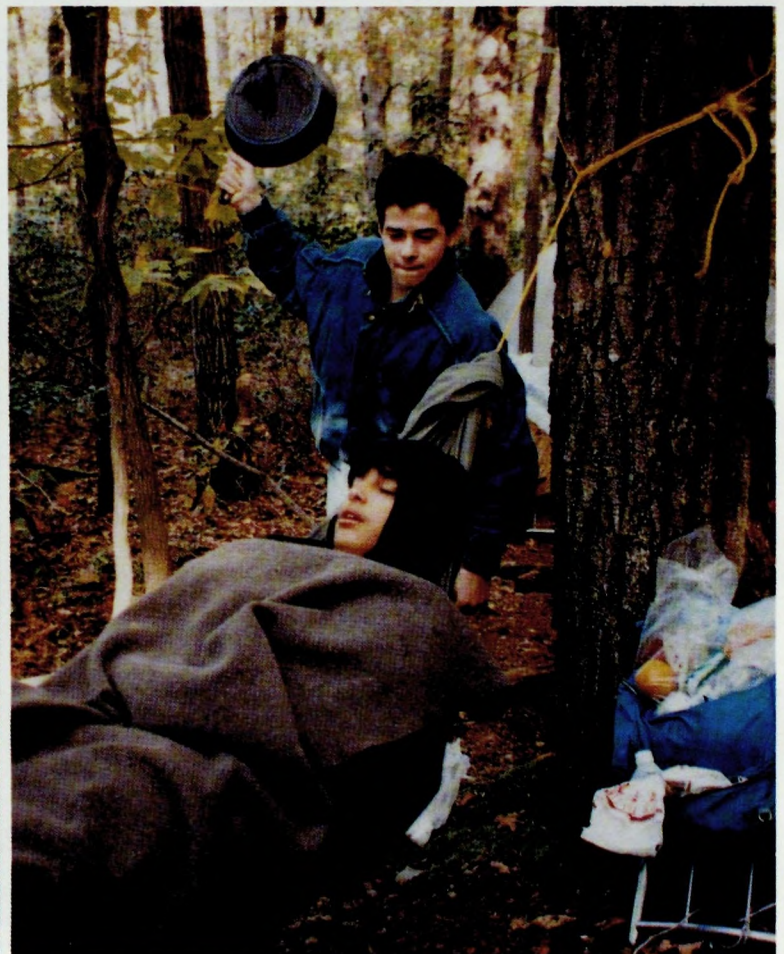

The neon lights shine bright on Broadway, but not so at Sligo campground. The ladies of Highland View retreated to this very spot for a weekend that proved to be relaxing and fulfilling. Lori Peckham counseled them on relationships and the reality of life.

TARTANS' BACKPACKING

When our men set out to find action and adventure their imagination knew no bounds. They embarked on a journey to Annapolis Rock to see just how long their endurance could hold out. There was no posh campsite for these woodsmen. They would be roughing it and they welcomed the challenge.

ROLLER SKATING

Even HVA big wigs need to kick back and relax once in a while. What better way than a night of roller skating at Skateland, in Waynesboro, Pennsylvania? These actors take even their relaxation seriously and more than one walked away with a few well-placed bruises.

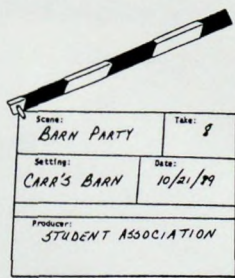

ALUMNI FUN DAY

Amidst the chivalry of crayon fencing and the gallantry of water fights, the Alumni Fun Day occurred. Many participated in the contests and games to win valuable tickets to collect fabulous prizes. There was especially fierce competition in the cake walk — a form of musical chairs with a new twist.

BARN PARTY

The night . . . dark. The air . . . cold. The spirits . . . high. The hay . . . abundant. This is a small scene from the episode "The Barn Party," October 21, 1989. After a wonderful production job by the Student Association, the night's festivities of hayrides, haymazes, campfires, food and games came to a climax with the showing of a feature film.

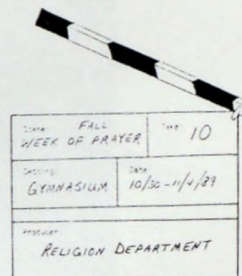

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Many times students relinquished their roles as actors to pursue a more serious topic. They often took center stage in leading Sabbath School, song service, Friday evening vespers, and a variety of duties in the church services.

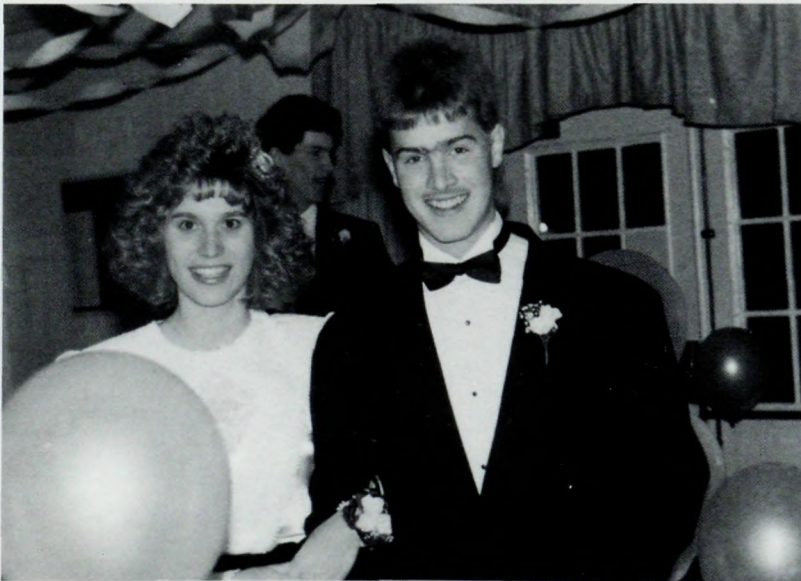

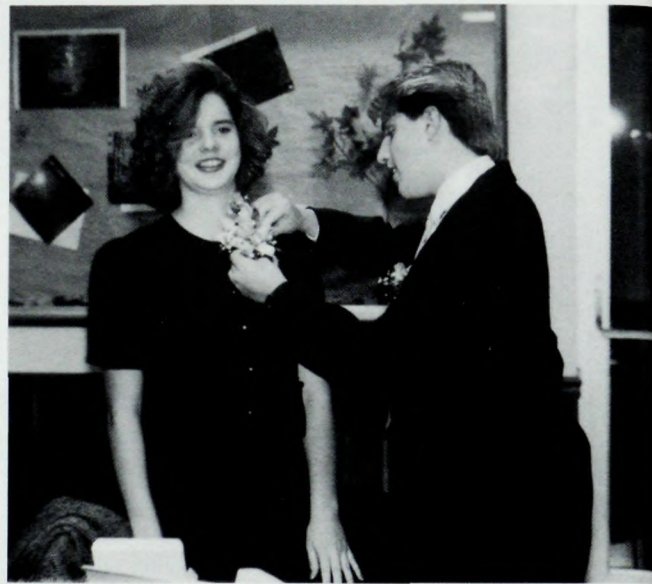

FALL WEEK OF PRAYER

Pastor Tim Evans was on center stage October 30 - November 4 for Fall Week of Prayer. He shared insights on our Director through singing and illustrations. He showed us how to emulate the brilliant performance of our Director and how we could live our characters on and off the set. Pastor Evans was not just an actor; he lived and believed as he taught us to act.

JOURNEY INTO IMAGINATION

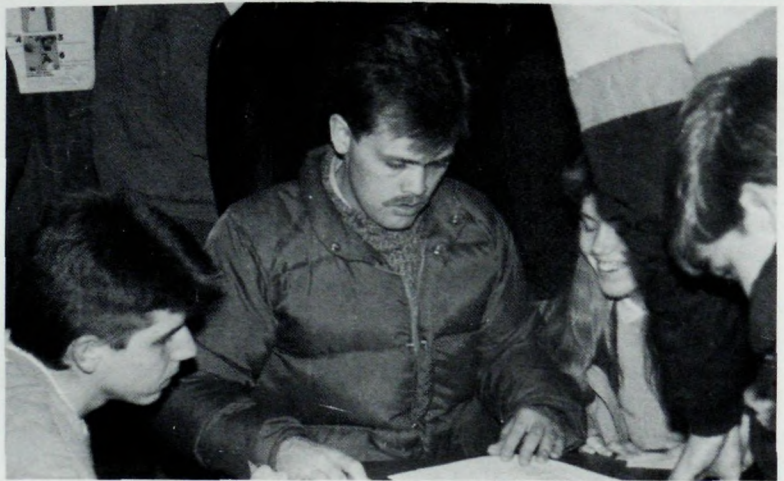

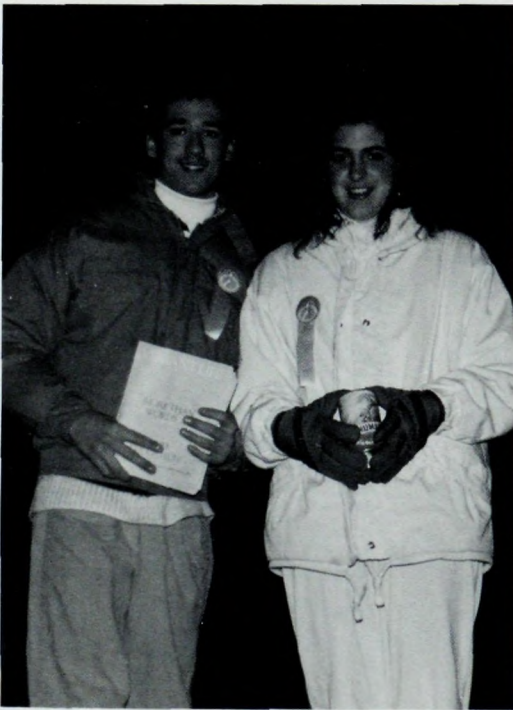

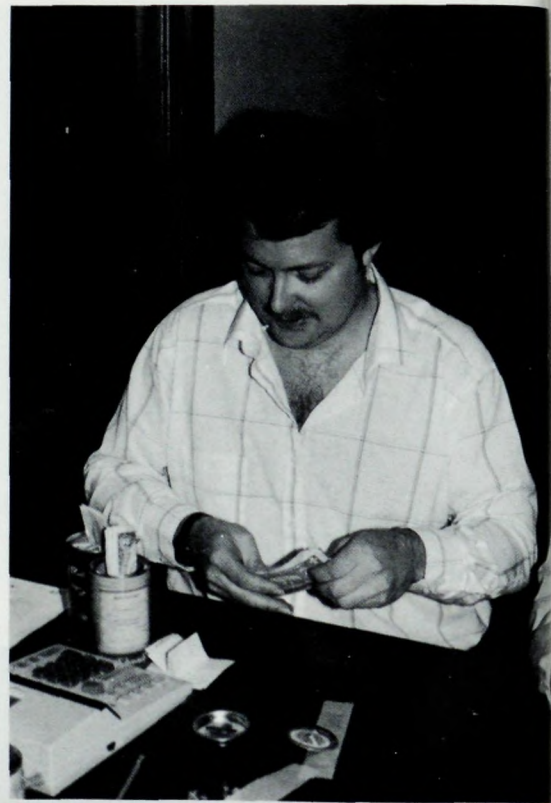

November 19 showed the actors attending a gala celebration in the world of imagination. They began with a tour of the magical girls' dorm before entering the restaurant decorated by the boys' club. There, they enjoyed fine cuisine from many corners of the world, including France, Italy, Norway, Mexico, and Japan. A showing of a classic film rounded out the evening.

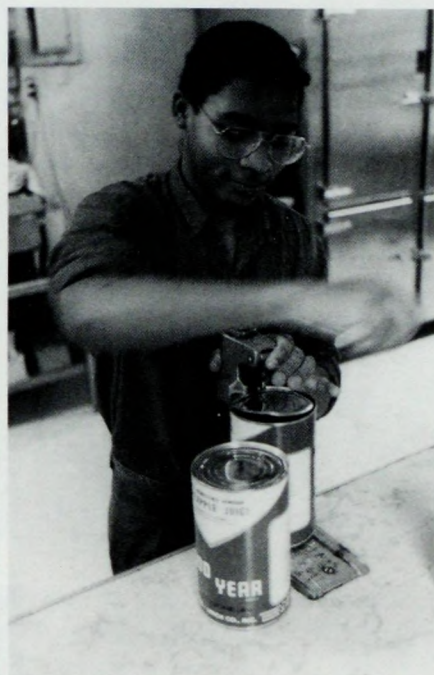

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The outreach programs are planned and organized by the students with help from their sponsors. Soup kitchens, singing bands to the nursing homes, adopt-a-grandparent, and ingathering are just a few of the special activities planned. The students gain a real blessing from helping others.

FUN IN THE SNOW

Winter brings with it the promise of snow. There is excitement in making the simple trip to the cafeteria with its ice-coated steps. Giant snowball fights on the soccer field, building miniature snowmen, and sliding down the hill and sidewalks offer a break from the humdrum routine.

SKI TRIP

Scene: SKI TRIP		Take: 13
Setting: VERMONT	Date: 1/30-2/4/90
Producer:

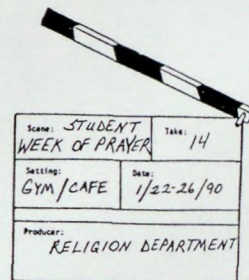

On January 30, a few hardy souls chose to give up their homeleave in search of the ultimate snow thrill. They packed into two vans and headed north for Vermont where they skied at Stowe and Killington.

STUDENT WEEK OF PRAYER

The students took center stage for the week of January 22-26. They did the speaking themselves. The theme was how they became and why they are still Christians. At the end of the week, on Friday evening, there was a special Agape Feast after which Pastor Rand led out in a small communion service.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Christmas is a festive time, a time to celebrate. The S.A. hosted the annual Christmas party. The cast was entertained by music, stories, and the most humorous Santa ever! They ate, exchanged gifts and closed with a magical Christmas film.

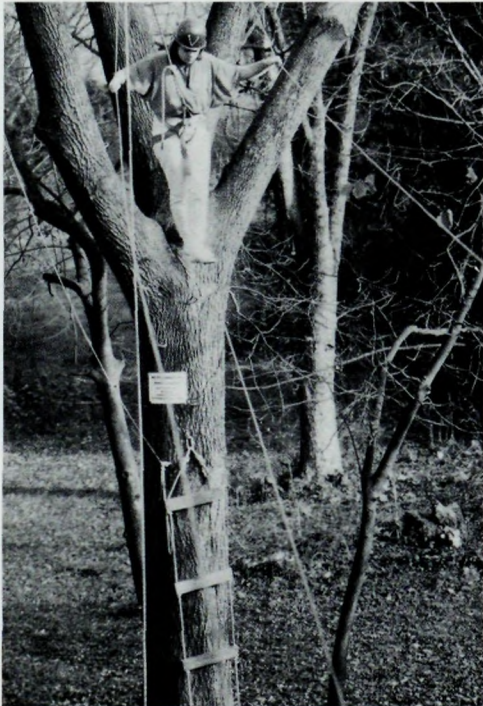

Scene: CHRISTMAS PARTY	Take: 15
Setting: CAFE	Date: 12/17/89
Producer: STUDENT ASSOCIATION

CAMPUS FAMILIES

To help the students adjust to being away from home, groups of caring faculty have adopted the dorm students. They help them learn the ropes and provide those things they would otherwise miss being away from home. Things such as games, home-cooked meals, and family traditions like decorating the Christmas tree. These groups give the students a little taste of home away from home.

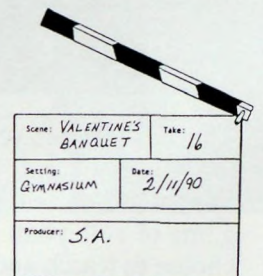

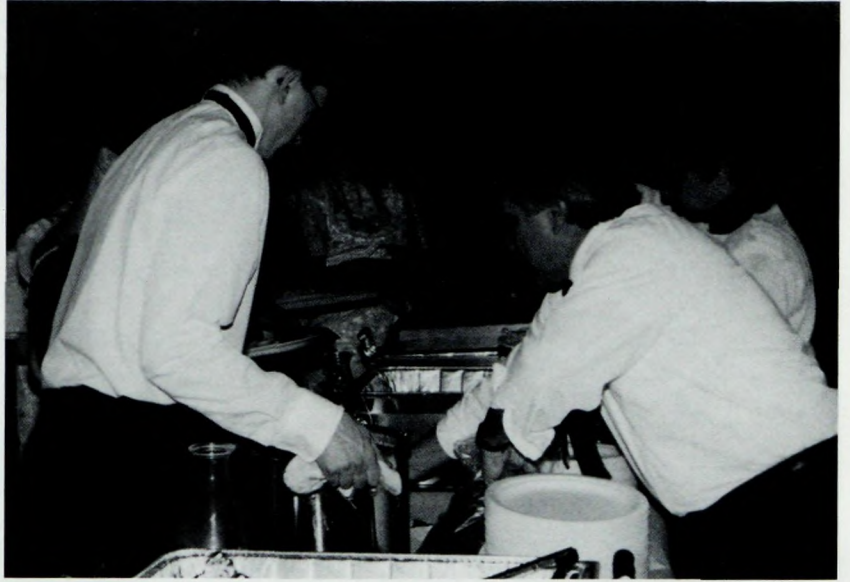

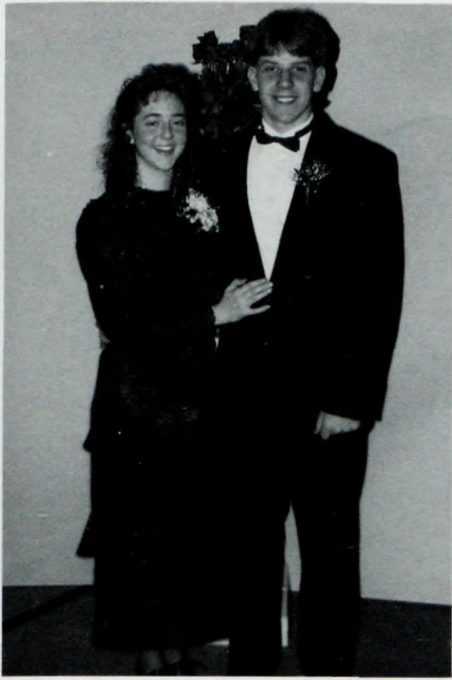

VALENTINE'S BANQUET

It was a posh evening for our cast and crew. A festive occasion to be sure. At around 6:00, the banquet began with a meal of fettuccine and steaklets catered by Mr. Scalzo. Flashbulbs were popping all night as pictures were taken to remember the evening. This banquet will be remembered "Always and Forever."

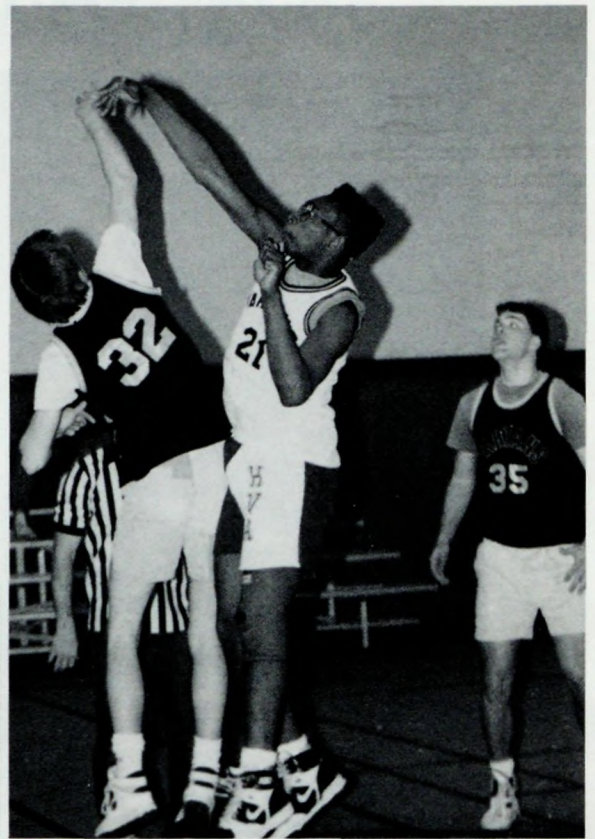

INTRAMURALS / RECREATION

There is a time every day to forget about your responsibilities for a while and just relax. The cast and crew need and appreciate recreation, whether they're playing an intramural game of volleyball or just a pick-up game of basketball. Some choose to watch and some decide to play. There is something for just about everyone at recreation.

FINE ARTS GUILD

Keith Geise, Lynette Brown, Jennifer Crouch, Paula Weisner, Christine Holtry, Amity Childers, Jane Yang, Terrie Tucker, Mickey Sayles, Beckie Tucker

Sponsor: Eric Engen

There is a group of people on our campus who tend to appreciate the finer arts. They travel to many concert halls in the area to hear and see various types of performances. They are becoming socially as well as culturally enriched.

Here's the church.

Look inside . . .

Where are the people?

Where are the people? Recent research says that as many as half of Adventist members don't attend church regularly, most because they don't feel welcome.

Think about your home church. Are some of your friends missing? This summer make your church a more attractive place for your friends to attend. Make sure they get invited to church. Welcome them. Get your youth Sabbath school to plan social events that sound exciting for young people.

Get involved in other ways at your home church this summer, too. Why not volunteer to help with Vacation Bible School? Sing or play for special music? Maybe teach a Sabbath school class for younger children?

But be a part of the home church you've missed while you're away at school.

The North American Division has adopted doubling church attendance as one of four goals in a program called Harvest 90. You can help reach that goal this summer. Attend yourself. Invite others. Make church an attractive place.

Some colleges brag about their hills. We thought we'd show you one of ours.

This is Capitol Hill in downtown Washington, D.C. Sure, it isn't much good for grazing cattle or growing grapes. But it is the capital of the free world, and it's just seven miles from Columbia Union College. CUC students have met the President, worked in Congressional offices on Capitol Hill, and watched history being made at the Supreme Court. So when we talk about CUC's scenic location, we're not just whistling Dixie.

Dear Bill,

We are very proud of you. Many challenges have faced you, but somehow you have managed to turn them all into accomplishments.

We love you so very much and hope that your life is full of abundant deserved happiness. Always remember, "YOU ARE THE BEST!"

Love,
Mom, Dad, Bobby and Crystal

CONGRATULATIONS, MICHAEL

Dear Michael,

M for memories--special memories of ...

a great baby who slept all night from the day we brought you home ... your serious illness at 18 months and how thrilled we were when the doctors said you were well at last! ... all the memories of growing up--babyhood, early childhood, grade school, the teen years, and the continued building of memories as you move into adulthood. We treasure every one!

I for your individuality ...

there's no one else exactly like you. You're your very own special person and no one else could ever take your place.

for your independence ...

you were never afraid to try new things, to be your own person ... even to go away to school 500 miles from home and family. How hard it was to let you go! But how proud we are of your decision.

C for your curiosity ...

you were always taking things apart and putting them back together again ... it seems like just yesterday you were building spaceships with Legos ... tinkering on your bike or dirt bike until you became quite a good mechanic ... and always interested in learning and trying new things.

H for the happiness you've brought your family and friends ...

for the joy and laughter you've brought to our home through your sense of humor ... for your friendly smile that puts everyone at ease ... for the happiness you brought your friends because they could confide in you and know you'd understand.

A for answered prayers ...

when you were so ill as a baby ... as we watched you grow physically, mentally, and spiritually ... when you wanted to go back to Highland View this year in spite of the fact that you had gotten so homesick the year before.

E for your enthusiasm for life and living ...

you've always gone at things full steam ahead, enjoying life to the fullest.

L for love ...

our deep, abiding love for you, Michael ... and for the eternal love of Jesus that binds us to Him and to each other.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Love, your brother,

Chris

Dear Michael,

You have always stuck up for me even when others haven't. Whenever I have friends over, you entertain them with your good humor. I always laugh whenever you sing. You are fun to have around.

I've always admired you for the good grades you earned in grade school. Even though you sometimes holler at me, you will always be my special brother.

I'll miss you when you go to college next year.

Dear Bill (Spencer),

Son, I am proud of you and your accomplishments over the past four years.

I want to encourage you as you continue your education and also remind you that "true wisdom" comes from above.

It is my earnest prayer as you walk through life that you will make Jesus your closest companion--for by so doing you will know the "true meaning" of success and happiness!

You are loved very much!

GRADUATION DAY

JUNE 3, 1990

The Senior players have acted out many scenes in preparation for whatever life may bring. They have arrived at the final curtain in this portion of their quest. This is not the end of their production, but merely one milestone passed, one stage credit on their resumé of life.

DEDICATED TO: MRS. ELAINE GROVE

This yearbook is dedicated to one of our most loved producers, Elaine Grove. Whether she's directing a senior class play, a dinner theatre, or just encouraging us not to "act like sophomores," Mrs. Grove is more than just a teacher — she is also our friend. She entertains us with her stories of experience. She explains English literature and the Canterbury Tales. She helps us to learn something about ourselves through our Philosophies of Life and through her constant caring. She is ever directing our eyes to Jesus and His example.
